From Wayne Quinton 1/25/01: William Moore, my grandfather, participated in polygamy and married two wives. The first wife had no children and the second wife my grandmother had 7 children, Ada, Amy, Elisabeth, Susie, Fred, William, Charley.

Craig was the son of William, and Marilyn Gee Fronk may be his sister. Ada my mother was born 4 April 1887 died 23 March 1982 just 11 days short of 95

My son Randy has all of the records mother put together, and I will send you a copy in a little while.

Alf Quinton was born on the Isle of White, apprenticed as a baker in London at the age of 5, traveled with his mother to Bear Lake in Utah at the age of 11. The Quinton family had both active and inactive LDS church members, and dad did not join the LDS church. Mother had the work done for him after he passed away. I am the adopted son of Alf Quinton, and he is the only father figure I ever knew although I knew he was my step father as long as I can remember. Thanks so much for all the information. I need to learn more about putting the clip into the word processor

Please send me Beth's phone number and I will call her.

Warmest Regards to toy and your husband,

Wayne and Jeanne

Children of William Moore and Eliza Newbold are:

- 10 i. Amy Rebecca³ Moore, born Sep 15, 1895 in Brigham City, Box Elder, UT; died May 16, 1983 in Bradenton, Manatee, FL. She married Joseph Willard Beaugard Jul 23, 1919 in Idaho Falls, Bonneville, ID²; born Dec 14, 1884 in Bingham Canyon, Salt Lake, UT; died Jun 2, 1932 in Nampa, Canyon, ID.

Notes for Amy Rebecca Moore:
From Amy Beaugard

My parents met in Salt Lake City, Utah. There were mother, father, Andrew, Fred, Ada, William, Elizabeth, and Amy. We were taking the covered wagon to Salem, Idaho. My father was a very good shoemaker of the finest leather from England. Hoping to start the shoe repair business. There was no need to have fine leather and course leather lasted longer.

My father has now changed his work to janitor work in some of the large buildings.

There are several more children by this time. All the children were going to school. The boys were doing different jobs and my sister, Ada, the oldest, was working at the Telephone office-quite different for 1921.

Everyone called her "Beau."

Amy R. Beaugard nee Moore Born September 15(16), 1895, Brigham City, Utah
1896 At 6 months moved with her family by covered wagon to St. Anthony, ID
1916 Graduated from high school in St. Anthony (have picture and announcement)
1916-17 Worked in an insurance company as secretary in St. Anthony

1917(19) Married Joseph Beauregard who worked for the Wood Live Stock Company in Spencer, Idaho. Their honeymoon was spent at the Salt Lake Resort in Utah.

1920 Daughter Eizabeth (Beth) was born.

When living in Spencer Amny enjoyed ice skating and dancing with her husband and friends. She became a member of the Eastern Star in Dubois and was a Worthy Matron twice. She liked to horseback ride. She worked with the other women in town at Christmas sweing the green and red net stockings for the Christmas program at the school house. The net stockings were filled with fruit and nuts. She also enjoyed the plays put on by the local theatrical buffs. She also made Tu-tus for Beth for Marcia Wood's yearly recital.

1932 Left Spencer for Nampa, Idaho, with husband and daughter.

1933 At death of Joe moved to St. Anthony where Beth and Amy lived with her mother for two years and worked when it was available.

1934 Took a job as cook at the U.S. Sheep Experiment Station where she worked until her nervous breakdown in 1937. Amy's brother in Dillon invited Beth and Amy to stay with them.

1935 Amy moved to Rigby to help her sister Ada run her dry cleaning shop

1942 Amy went to Washington D.C. to visit Beth. At the end of the summer Amy decided to accept her daughter's invitation to stay and keep her company since Beth's husband was in the South Pacific. Amy took a refresher course at night at the High School across from their apartment. She worked on her shorthand and typing and within a few months she was working as a card-punch clerk with the Government

1943 She soon worked herself up to a typist position

1944 Her job changed and she went to work for the U. S. Employment Service, Veterans Division, as secretary to the head of one of the departments.

1946 When Beth remarried (her first husband was killed in the war) Amy was asked by the couple to make her home with them

1960 Amy retired with honors at age 65 from the Government where had many friends

During the years of her retirement she enjoyed her grandchildren at the Hugo family's home in Maryland near D.C. and the University of Maryland. She was valuable and helpful member of the family and she quickly made friends in the community. Amy visited her sister in Seattle every summer, going on a trip to Hawaii with Adan's sone and family. Amy kept active and helped keep the household running smoothly and continued her handiwork. Her favorite job was ironing and working in the yard. However, her grandchildren Michele and Curtis were her real love. She played cards with them, taught Michele to embroider, knit and crochet and was the chief birthday cake maker.

1978 While visiting Ada her heart trouble flaired up and when she returned to Maryland was ill for several months. However, she started going to a Senior Citizens Fellowship which she enjoyed and soon became more enthusiastic about life than ever before with the exciting activities and new friends. She also took part in a University of Maryland program for Seniors every Saturday morning during the fall and spring semembers of the school.

1982 When her daughter and husband retired, they moved to Florida to Anna Maria on the West coast. She enjoyed walking the beach and walking every morning to the Post Office to watch the post-mistress put up the flag and made many friends. She was able to go again to another Senior Center every day.

1983 Amy contracted pneumonis in January and never recovered from the shock. She had several strokes and died four months later. Amy was one in a million and grew in beauty as she aged. Her service was held in Maryland where her many friends were.

1903 Graduated from High School
1906 Graduated from Pocatello Teachers College with average score of 90.
1910 Completed correspondence course in Stenography from Intercontinental University, Washington, D.C.
1912? Took an office job with the Wood Live Stock Company
1917 Married Amy Moore on July 8.
1920 Daughter Elizabeth (Beth) was born. She resembled her father
1924 Went to Louisiana to study law, but became homesick for his family. He gave up his dream and came back and continued to work at the Wood Live Stock Company.

Here is a description of Joe in Spencer. He was a very quiet man who read a great deal, particularly about law. He was a Mason. He liked to fish and took Beth with him. When the tennis court was built he played tennis. He participated in plays the Spencer theatrical buffs put on. He played the part of a mad Russian in one of them when Beth was about 4 years old. She remembers being so frightened she cried watching the strange way her father acted--yelling and running around the stage like a crazy man. Joe knew a good bit about the constellations in the sky and he taught Beth to recognize Orion's Belt. He also taught her to enjoy and not fear thunder storms, with lightning flashing, as a big show, something awsomey beautiful but warned her how to protect herself. On Joe's vacation Joe liked to take his family to see his many brothers and sisters and mother. They lived from Grays Lake to Nampa. It was a big trip in those days. The family often went to the hot springs near Dubois for a picnic and swim on Sundays.
1932 Because of the depression and financial problems of the Wood Live Stock Company Joe lost his job and the family moved to Nampa near family and lived on a lovely farm there.
1933 Joe died in June.

Thanks so much for all the photos:

A couple of comments:

I guess you know that Susie Moore was first married to Charles H. Aiman in Oct 8, 1919 (according to Familysearch.org) but was apparently divorced. This is what was in Aunt Ada's Genealogy report that I got from Grandma Amy. She had the marriage data as 10/3/1917. I don't have anything for when she died, do you? I couldn't find anything on familysearch.org or ancestry.com.

Have you seen the data submitted to familysearch.org by William Craig Moore of Rexburg, ID? That's where the information about John Moore and Ann Stocks comes from.

Susie died 07/10/1976 in Los Angeles, California

I have seen the information on familysearch that was posted by Craig Moore. The information that was in there on my grandparents was mostly wrong. I do not trust much of the information that is submitted to the site. I have been in the local family history libraries and heard some of the comments by the people entering their information. The submission of family history information is some type of a requirement to be temple ready in the LDS faith. Some of the information is suspect at best. It does give you a good place to start but I would verify anything that I pulled from there.

I was talking to Dad about Uncle Charlie the other night and he thinks he may have died in Arizona. They had a daughter that was living there. I have not had time to check that out yet.
